Corbin on Pennsylvania Contracts

Timothy Murray, Jon Hogue

Expanding on the influence of the Corbin brand, Corbin on Pennsylvania Contracts is a unique explanation of the law of contracts in Pennsylvania. Did you know these contract tenets are specific to Pennsylvania?

- Pennsylvania is the only state to enact the Uniform Written Obligations Act, a substitute for consideration, but still requires a bargained-for exchange with restrictive covenants.
- Pennsylvania refuses to consider most evidence of fraud to invalidate a contract.
- Pennsylvania is in the minority in regarding the “lost volume seller” rule and other key contract rules.
- Pennsylvania adheres to a strict “four corners” approach to contract interpretation and construction.
- Pennsylvania applies the law in the face of disagreement among courts regarding recovery of consumer credit card debt.
