

CSC® Legal Publications and Compliance Resources

CSC provides comprehensive business transactional services to more than 90 percent of the Fortune 500® companies, and nearly 10,000 law firms. CSC and LexisNexis® are uniquely qualified to deliver quality deskbooks across 20+ jurisdictions.

These annotated titles are produced in a softbound format and include downloadable forms via an online download center. Titles are also available in eBook format for your eReader device.

You are in good company

- Litigation and transaction attorneys rely on these resources to stay up to date on the latest business laws.
- Corporate counsel and company executives consult their handbooks while prepping for litigation, handling mergers and acquisitions, UCC matters, and more.
- Smaller firms appreciate the current, affordable compilation of laws and easy access to fillable forms.

Find it faster

- Use the Table of Sections Affected—listing all statutes added or amended by recent legislation—and Blackline Amendment Notes (in selected titles)—setting out the effect of those amendments—to quickly find statutory changes.
- Quickly locate the latest case notes with the Table of New Annotations and change bars.
- Download the fillable forms for incorporation/formation, qualification, mergers, dissolution, and name reservation for all entity types.

Gain insight from legal advisors

Readers also benefit from informed analysis from CSC legislative advisors. These are attorneys who practice in the state and provide highlights of noteworthy legislative changes at the front of the books.

CSC titles are available as both stand-alone eBooks and on the LexisNexis® Digital Library. Read your eBook in your web browser or download it on dedicated eReader devices. The eBook editions allow Lexis Advance® users to easily link online for additional research.

The Directors' Handbook

The Directors' Handbook is one of today's leading guides to corporate governance, capturing the latest developments that directors of public companies face from both a practical and legal perspective.

The Handbook provides insightful analysis of the evolving regulatory and legal landscape, and practical, hands-on information that directors can use to guide their companies.

Highlights of coverage in the latest edition include:

- How directors can defend against short sellers, and a call for proxy advisor oversight
- Proxy advisory firm proxy voting guidelines, including:
 - Board gender diversity
 - Auditor ratification
 - Virtual-only shareholder meetings
 - Director qualifications
 - Shareholder proposals
- The addition of cybersecurity risk oversight to the list of director due diligence hot buttons
- SEC amendments to executive compensation and corporate governance disclosure
- Updates to the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board's (PCAOB) model for auditor reports
- The results of the 2018 Semier Brossy survey of say-on-pay votes
- Updated perspective on international corporate governance, including the "Shakespearean Drama" that is Brexit and the latest corruption index figures from Transparency International

Qualifying to Do Business in Another State: The CSC® 50-State Guide to Qualification

Here is your comprehensive resource for helping you decide whether to qualify your company to do business in a different state. Fulfilling qualification requirements can be a complex and time-consuming task. The consequences of making the wrong decision can be harsh, ranging from monetary penalties for a corporation, to jail time for its officers and directors. To aid corporations in navigating these waters, CSC developed this comprehensive toolbox offering:

- Case illustrations and discussion of business activities that do or do not trigger qualification requirements
- Insight on whether certain internet activities require qualification
- Annotated qualification statutes for all 50 states and the District of Columbia
- Quick-reference charts
- A companion CD-ROM of forms
